

Privacy Notice

INDIANAPOLIS HOMELESS MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEM

FULL NOTICE

Effective 12/2/2022

Version 2

A. WHAT THIS NOTICE COVERS

1. This notice describes the privacy policy and practices of the Indianapolis Homeless Management Information System (HMIS) and [Agency Name]. Our main office is at [Address, email/web address, telephone].
2. The policy and practices in this notice cover the processing of protected personal information for clients of [Name of Participating Organization]. If this agency is a covered entity under HIPAA, you may have additional rights regarding your protected health information and these rights will be described to you in the agency's Notice of Privacy Practices under HIPAA
3. Protected Personal information (PPI) is any information we maintain about a client that:
 - a. allows identification of an individual directly or indirectly
 - b. can be manipulated by a reasonably foreseeable method to identify a specific individual, or
 - c. can be linked with other available information to identify a specific client.When this notice refers to personal information, it means PPI.
4. We adopted this policy because of standards for Homeless Management Information Systems issued by the Department of Housing and Urban Development. We intend our policy and practices to be consistent with those standards. See 69 Federal Register 45888 (July 30, 2004).
5. This notice tells our clients, our staff, and others how we process personal information. We follow the policy and practices described in this notice.
6. We may amend this notice and change our policy or practices at any time. Amendments may affect personal information that we obtained before the effective date of the amendment.
 - a. Amendments to this privacy notice will be approved by the HMIS Lead.
7. We give a written copy of this privacy notice to any individual who asks.
8. We maintain a copy of this privacy notice on the HMIS website at www.chipindy.org.

B. HOW AND WHY WE COLLECT PERSONAL INFORMATION

1. We collect personal information only when appropriate to provide services or for another specific purpose of our organization or when required by law. We may collect information for these purposes:
 - a. to provide or coordinate services to clients
 - b. to locate other programs that may be able to assist clients
 - c. for functions related to payment or reimbursement from others for services that we provide
 - d. to operate our organization, including administrative functions such as legal, audits, personnel, oversight, and management functions
 - e. to comply with government reporting obligations
 - f. when required by law
2. We only use lawful and fair means to collect personal information.
3. We normally collect personal information with the knowledge or consent of our clients. If you seek our assistance and provide us with personal information, we assume that you consent to the collection of information as described in this notice.
4. We may also get information about you from:
 - a. Individuals who are with you
 - b. Other private organizations that provide services
 - c. Government agencies
 - d. Telephone directories and other published sources, including internet directories
 - e. Other organizations with whom we have a formal partnership
5. We post a sign at our intake desk or other location explaining the reasons we ask for personal information. The sign says:

When you request services from this agency, we enter information about you and members of your family into a computer system called the Indianapolis Homeless Management Information System (HMIS). The HMIS is used by many social service agencies in Indianapolis that provide housing and related services.

We collect personal information directly from you for reasons that are discussed in our privacy statement. We may be required to collect some personal information by law and/or for organizations that give us money to operate this program. Other personal information that we collect is important to run our programs, to improve services for homeless individuals, and to better understand the needs of near-homeless or homeless individuals. We only collect information that we consider to be appropriate.

We may use or disclose your information to provide you with services. We may also use or disclose your information to comply with legal and other obligations. We assume that you agree to allow us to collect information and to use or disclose it as described in the full notice. You can inspect the personal information collected from you that we maintain. You can also ask us to correct inaccurate or incomplete information. You can ask us about our privacy policy or practices. We respond to questions and complaints. Read the full notice for more details. Anyone can have a copy of the full notice upon request.

C. HOW WE USE AND DISCLOSE PERSONAL INFORMATION

1. We use or disclose personal information for activities described in this part of the notice. We may or may not make any of these uses or disclosures with your information. We assume that you consent to the use or disclosure of your personal information for the purposes described here and for other uses and disclosures that we determine to be compatible with these uses or disclosures:
 - a. to provide or coordinate services to individuals; data may be shared with other HMIS participating agencies (a copy of participating agencies can be found at www.chipindy.org) and third party stakeholders that have completed a data use agreement and use the data to provide or coordinate services.
 - b. for functions related to payment or reimbursement for services.
 - c. to carry out administrative functions such as legal, audits, personnel, oversight, and management functions.
 - d. to create de-identified (anonymous) information that can be used for research and statistical purposes without identifying clients.
 - e. when required by law to the extent that use, or disclosure complies with and is limited to the requirements of the law.
 - f. To avert a serious threat to health or safety if:
 - i. we believe that the use or disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of an individual or the public, and
 - ii. the use or disclosure is made to a person reasonably able to prevent or lessen the threat, including the target of the threat.
 - g. to report about an individual, we reasonably believe to be a victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence to a governmental authority (including a social service or protective services agency) authorized by law to receive reports of abuse, neglect or domestic violence.
 - i. under any of these circumstances:
 1. where the disclosure is required by law and the disclosure complies with and is limited to the requirements of the law.
 2. if the individual agrees to the disclosure, or
 3. to the extent that the disclosure is expressly authorized by statute or regulation, and
 - a. we believe the disclosure is necessary to prevent serious harm to the individual or other potential victims, or
 - b. if the individual is unable to agree because of incapacity, a law enforcement or other public official authorized to receive the report represents that the PPI for which disclosure is sought is not intended to be used against the individual and that an immediate enforcement activity that depends upon the disclosure would be materially and adversely affected by waiting until the individual is able to agree to the disclosure.
 - and
 - ii. when we make a permitted disclosure about a victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence, we will promptly inform the individual who is the victim that a disclosure has been or will be made, except if:
 1. we, in the exercise of professional judgment, believe informing the individual would place the individual at risk of serious harm, or
 2. we would be informing a personal representative (such as a family member or friend), and we reasonably believe the personal representative is responsible for the abuse, neglect or other injury, and that informing the personal representative would not be in the best interests of the individual as we determine in the exercise of professional judgment.

- h. for academic research purposes or data sharing projects for service coordination purposes:
 - i. conducted by an individual or institution that has a formal relationship with the Contributing HMIS Organization (CHO) if the research or data sharing is conducted either:
 - 1. by an individual employed by or affiliated with the organization for use in a research or service coordination project conducted under a written data sharing agreement approved in writing by a designated CHO program administrator (other than the individual conducting the research), or
 - 2. by an institution for use in a research project or data sharing project conducted under a written data sharing agreement approved in writing by a designated CHO program administrator.
 - and
 - ii. any written research or data sharing agreement:
 - 1. must establish rules and limitations for the processing and security of PPI in the course of the research or data sharing project
 - 2. must provide for the return or proper disposal of all PPI at the conclusion of the research or data sharing project
 - 3. must restrict additional use or disclosure of PPI, except where required by law
 - 4. must require that the recipient of data formally agree to comply with all terms and conditions of the agreement, and
 - 5. is not a substitute for approval (if appropriate) of a research project by an Institutional Review Board, Privacy Board or other applicable human subjects' protection institution.
- i. to a law enforcement official for a law enforcement purpose (if consistent with applicable law and standards of ethical conduct) under any of these circumstances:
 - i. in response to a lawful court order, court-ordered warrant, subpoena or summons issued by a judicial officer, or a grand jury subpoena.
 - ii. if the law enforcement official makes a written request for PPI that:
 - 1. is signed by a supervisory official of the law enforcement agency seeking the PPI
 - 2. states that the information is relevant and material to a legitimate law enforcement investigation
 - 3. identifies the PPI sought
 - 4. is specific and limited in scope to the extent reasonably practicable in light of the purpose for which the information is sought, and
 - 5. states that de-identified information could not be used to accomplish the purpose of the disclosure.
 - iii. if we believe in good faith that the PPI constitutes evidence of criminal conduct that occurred on our premises.
 - iv. in response to an oral request for the purpose of identifying or locating a suspect, fugitive, material witness or missing person and the PPI disclosed consists only of name, address, date of birth, place of birth, Social Security Number, and distinguishing physical characteristics, or
 - v. if

1. the official is an authorized federal official seeking PPI for the provision of protective services to the President or other persons authorized by 18 U.S.C. 3056, or to foreign heads of state or other persons authorized by 22 U.S.C. 2709(a)(3), or for the conduct of investigations authorized by 18 U.S.C. 871 and 879 (threats against the President and others), and
 2. the information requested is specific and limited in scope to the extent reasonably practicable in light of the purpose for which the information is sought.
- and
- j. to comply with government reporting obligations for homeless management information systems and for oversight of compliance with homeless management information system requirements.

D. HOW TO INSPECT AND CORRECT PERSONAL INFORMATION

1. You may inspect and have a copy of your personal information that we maintain. We will offer to explain any information that you may not understand.
2. We will consider a request from you for correction of inaccurate or incomplete personal information that we maintain about you. If we agree that the information is inaccurate or incomplete, we may delete it or we may choose to mark it as inaccurate or incomplete and to supplement it with additional information.
3. To inspect, get a copy of, or ask for correction of your information, contact your agency case manager and ask, either orally or in writing, to view, either on the screen or a printed copy, your information contained in the HMIS.
4. We may deny your request for inspection or copying of personal information if:
 - a. the information was compiled in reasonable anticipation of litigation or comparable proceedings
 - b. the information is about another individual (other than a health care provider or homeless provider)
 - c. the information was obtained under a promise or confidentiality (other than a promise from a health care provider or homeless provider) and if the disclosure would reveal the source of the information, or
 - d. disclosure of the information would be reasonably likely to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual.
5. If we deny a request for access or correction, we will explain the reason for the denial. We will also include, as part of the personal information that we maintain, documentation of the request and the reason for the denial.
6. We may reject repeated or harassing requests for access or correction.

E. DATA QUALITY

1. We collect only personal information that is relevant to the purposes for which we plan to use it. To the extent necessary for those purposes, we seek to maintain only personal information that is accurate, complete, and timely.
2. We are developing and implementing a plan to dispose of personal information not in current use seven years after the information was created or last changed. As an alternative to disposal, we may choose to remove identifiers from the information.

3. We may keep information for a longer period if required to do so by statute, regulation, contract, or another requirement.

F. COMPLAINTS AND ACCOUNTABILITY

1. We accept and consider questions or complaints about our privacy and security policies and practices.
 - a. Any questions or complaints regarding our privacy and security policies and practices should be addressed to the following:
 - i. HMIS Site Administrator, [Agency name and address and phone number]. The HMIS Site Administrator will respond in writing within 30 days to the question or complaint.
 - ii. If the response from the HMIS Site Administrator is unsatisfactory, your original questions and/or complaints, along with the response from the HMIS Site Administrator, should be forwarded to the HMIS Administrator, 1014 Prospect St, Indianapolis, IN 46203, 317-630-0853. The HMIS Administrator will respond in writing within 30 days to the question or complaint.
2. All members of our staff (including employees, volunteers, affiliates, contractors and associates) are required to comply with this privacy notice. Each staff member must receive and acknowledge receipt of a copy of this privacy notice.
